Perineal Repair Workshop
Friday 19th March, 2010

Venue: ACM NSW Branch Office. Suite 77/89-97 Jones St, Ultimo

Due to popular demand, ACM NSW Branch will conduct a one day workshop on the care and repair of the perineum in childbirth. The workshop has a large practical component. The workshop is evidence-based and provides the necessary knowledge that midwives require to start perineal repair.

Limited numbers ensure both the theoretical and practical sessions are interactive and informative.

Presented by Leah Whitehead

Workshop: 8.45am Registration. 9am start - 4pm (all participants are expected to be ready for a 0900 start to ensure that the workshop is completed on time)

Requirements: Please bring to the workshop: Disposable suture set and sutures (out of date is fine).

Morning and afternoon tea will be provided. Great value! BOOK NOW!

Cost: ACM NSW members: $100

Non-members: $125

Closing Date: 3rd December, 2009

Endorsed by the Australian College of Midwives

Certificate of Attendance including ACM Mid PLUS points will be issued on the day.
